PRE-EVENT COMMUNICATION

Approximately 120 days prior to the event, VACAYA will send out all relevant information regarding advance registration, excursion booking, spa appointments, etc. Your clients should be encouraged to visit <https://www.myvacaya.com/trip/mexico/get-ready/> to stay informed of all pre-event details.

ALCOHOL POLICY

As provided by Unico Hotel Riviera Maya Alcohol Policy, guests who demonstrate irresponsible behavior may be asked to leave the resort property, at their own expense, in accordance with UNICO's Guest Conduct Policy. UNICO reserves the right to revoke or otherwise restrict drinking privileges of any guest, regardless of age. Even if all criteria are met, resort personnel may elect, and have the option to, not grant the waiver or any such drinking privileges. Mexican laws require all liquor bottles, wine, or beer that enters the hotel to have the proper codes, seals and stamps, and these federal laws are enforced by the Mexico Department of Internal Revenue and Tax Collection, and the Department of Health. As the health, safety, and wellness of the guests is top priority, the hotel follows these strict guidelines and complies with standards required by the designated regulatory authorities.

REQUIRED TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

U.S. Citizens: As a general rule, U.S. Passports should have at least six months of validity when traveling internationally. Most countries will not permit a traveler to enter their country unless the passport is set to expire at least six months after the final day of travel.

Non-U.S. Citizens: Valid Passports from the country of residence are required. Visas may also be required. Ensure your clients check the travel requirements to the European Union at least three months prior to departure to verify current regulations.

FOR ALL TRAVELERS, please note: without the proper required travel documents, your clients could be denied registering at the resort.
